

PLAGIARISM POLICY OF BHARATI LAW REVIEW

In order to publish your article, you need to keep in mind certain policies of Bharati Law Review:

- Bharati Law Review accepts sole and exclusive owner of the Work i.e. all Manuscript to the Journal should be original and should not be simultaneously considered by any other publication.
- Manuscript is accepted for publication on the condition that they do not infringe the copyright or any other legal rights of any third party. Hence journal doesn't take any responsibility regarding plagiarism issues raised out of any article published by author. Plagiarised article will not be published in our journal, however if any plagiarised article published, journal will not be responsible and it would be sole responsibility of the author.
- Please note that the Editorial Board will not check for Plagiarism, Authors are instructed to take care of plagiarism before submitting their manuscript. Hence authors are fully responsible for any infringement.
- Please note that the paper should not be submitted for publication elsewhere until a decision has been made by Editorial Board.
- No intimation will be given for rejected articles, Authors are requested to wait for particular period, if they didn't receive any intimation regarding their selection within particular period of time, then they are free to publish it elsewhere.